

Ravenna's beaches. A sea of opportunities. a mosaic of experiences.

Ravenna's nine seaside resorts offer a wide range of possibilities to enjoy an unforgettable holiday. Stretching for over 30 km along the Adriatic coast, its beaches are in perfect harmony between fine sandy dunes, the ancient pinewoods sung by Dante and Byron and the charming nature reserves.

There is a very good choice of accommodation on the beaches of Ravenna – hotels, campsites, holiday houses and apartments – that provide many different services and facilities for a relaxing, fun-filled and wellness holiday in contact with nature. Here, the beneficial effects of the sun and the sea meet the possibility of practising all kind of water and beach sports to suit your needs.

The beach is the meeting point between the sea, the pinewoods and the liveliness of our region. At the same time, it is the symbol of the rich and unique tourist offer of Ravenna – a city of art by the sea, an ancient city and a former capital that still conserves eight monuments recognized by UNESCO as world heritage, with mosaics of unparalleled beauty and majestic architectures.

Ravenna's seaside welcomes you all year round, even in winter. In the bathing establishments open until late evening, you can enjoy excellent fish and traditional dishes, listen to live music and meet famous authors and artists presenting their latest creations.

Culture, nature, outdoor activities, welcoming accommodation, well-being, cycle paths, fitness, yoga, sailing schools for young and old: Ravenna's beaches are a true mosaic of experiences.

THE BEACHES OF RAVENNA
Ravenna World Heritage

Casal Borsetti

This ancient fishing village nestled in the Po Delta Park is divided into two parts by a picturesque canal that flows into the Marina of Porto Reno. Staying in Casal Borsetti means living a true open-air experience: the most extensive camping area in the territory of Ravenna, a campervan parking area and a small golf course are located just 100 metres from the beach, surrounded by pinewoods. In the dog-friendly stretch of beach you can take your dog directly to the shore. Biking through the lush pine forests along the smooth cycle path, you can easily reach other seaside resorts as well as the city of art Ravenna. The excellent local cuisine offers fresh-caught fish_

Marina Romea

Peace, relaxation and striking landscapes of rare beauty make of Marina Romea one of the most elegant beaches on the coast of Ravenna. Lots of activities are organized here during the summer, ranging from concerts by the sea, entertainment, horse riding, canoeing to beach volleyball and basketball, beach tennis and surfing, not to mention the initiatives for children and the guided tours in the Po Delta Park – the largest wetlands in Europe. A thrilling experience of nature between salt and fresh water, pinewoods and wide beaches_

Porto Corsini

This small fishing village is located on the north bank of the Corsini canal (called Candiano) that divides it from the lively Marina di Ravenna, to which it is connected by ferries operating on a regular basis. Here you can try water sports, experience horse riding and explore the hiking and biking trails crossing the pinewood. Do not miss the opportunity to take a stroll on the over 2 km-long seawall that from the beach runs along the northern side of the anchorage. Porto Corsini is also a cruise port for big cruise ships; passengers can easily reach the city centre and visit its monuments by bus_

Marina di Ravenna

In Ravenna's most popular beach among young people, you can live the summer to the fullest: from the break of day when the time is magic for a walk on the shore, until late at night when the music cheers up the pubs of the centre and by the sea. Qualified hotels, holiday apartments and campsites will meet the needs of all holiday-makers who choose to stay here. With more than 1.000 berths, MarinaRa tourist harbour is ideally located, easy to reach and a short distance from some of the most important tourist destinations_

Punta Marina Terme

Surrounded by green pinewoods, Punta Marina boasts a spa by the sea where you can pamper yourself with the treatments of the refined Beauty Centre and take advantage of the medical facilities for the healing of rheumatic and respiratory diseases. Besides being very popular with families thanks to the wide selection of excellent services and accommodation facilities of its beaches, Punta Marina offers a lot of sports and leisure activities such as beach volley, beach tennis and fun even for the most demanding young audience. There are also excellent restaurants and a nice disco open all year_

Lido Adriano

In Lido Adriano you can choose a tailor-made solution to live your ideal holiday: hotels and apartments with all modern conveniences, holiday apartments and villas for rent or campsites in the shade of a lush green area. Particularly appreciated by young people and families, its beaches are dotted with bathing establishments where you can spend a relaxing day or engage in sports activities such as fitness, beach volleyball and sailing. Swimming pools, tennis courts and skating rinks, as well as water parks and playgrounds for the entertainment of adults and children alike complete the offer_

Lido di Dante

Nestled in a charming and unspoiled landscape, Lido di Dante has fully entered the list of the most beautiful beaches in Italy drawn by Legambiente. The view is breathtaking: the sea and the ancient pinewood of Classe are joined together by beautiful dunes, constantly shaped and reshaped by the action of wind. The beach is almost completely public and is surrounded by the nature reserve of the Bevano mouth – included in the Po Delta Park – that slowly and sinuously flows into the sea just 3 km away from the village_

Lido di Classe

Lido di Classe is situated between the ancient Classe pinewood and the mouth of the river Savio. Well-maintained street furniture and green spaces, top hotel and bathing facilities are guarantee of a pleasant stay for families and for those who seek relaxation. The proximity to the pine forest allows you to walk, cycle or horse ride on the many nature trails connecting the village to Lido di Savio, Lido di Dante and the nearby Classe where you can see the Basilica of Sant'Apollinare (UNESCO heritage) and the archaeological site_

Lido di Savio

Lido di Savio is a quiet and sunny resort and a little holiday paradise – families can let their children play safely on the wide sandy beach and in the shallow sea. Life here is relaxing and pleasant. You can take a stroll in the cool Pinewood of Classe surrounding the village or bike along the cycle path bordering the seafront and reach Milano Marittima and Cervia. If you are looking for an active holiday, you can play sports on the beach and spend days of unbridled fun in the theme parks of the Riviera. There are also many restaurants where you can end the day with a nice fish dinner_

Lido di Classe and Lido di Savio are very close to MIRABILANDIA, the biggest amusement park in Italy including themed areas designed to create fantastic worlds and more than 40 attractions among the biggest and most entertaining in Europe.
